Atlanta SuperSectional

The Gatlinburg of Sectionals

There is no Mid-Atlantic regional over the biggest summer holiday, so plan now to be part of another record-breaking Atlanta SuperSectional. It's July 1-5 at the Atlanta Hilton Northeast, and last year's affair drew 1,085 tables -- a greater attraction than 50 percent of the ACBL's six- and seven-day regionals. The highlights are a full-fledged Intermediate/Novice program, SEVEN bracketed knockout events and plenty of food and drink. Pick up a flier at the information table or check www.mabcbridge.org.

“Cry Like a Girl”

One of our head caddies, Darleen Bates, has been busy writing a book, in addition to her duties as District 7's Grand National Teams coordinator. She says she was tired of people using the phrase 'cry like a girl' in such a way that it was meant to show sign of weakness. Darleen started to jot down times when crying is to show happiness, strength and sadness. When her high school friend contacted her 18 months ago to say she had stage 4 cancer, Darleen took this as a sign to get busy and finish the book as one never knows when something unexpected can happen. Her friend never got to see the actual book as she died only a week after the book was published but she did get to see a draft copy and knew that it would be dedicated to her. Darleen will be setting up shop at the bottom of the escalator during the lunch and dinner breaks,
