Great Job Jim!

The people of Greenville wish to thank Jim Villanueva for another outstanding job as tournament co-chair. This makes 4 tournaments he has run now and they've all been better than the last. Now get to work on 2013!

We practice zero tolerance!

Winner Winner Chicken Dinner!

Sometimes the struggle for something makes it all the sweeter. Ann Price and Sally Cole from Carrollton, GA, spent a whole year chasing 1/2 of a gold point. That's all. Some people like Jeff Meckstroth get that much in their sleep. Then, in an example of it doesn't rain but it pours, Sally and Ann won Bracket 5 of the Foster Plant KO (playing with Sandra and David Parker) and got 11.31 points, more than enough. A sigh of relief!

Suzie Brawley of Mooresville, NC, won Bracket 3 of the Monaghan Compact Kos to get her gold card. Teammates were Judy Hathaway, Carol Denny and Joann Taormina. Patricia Jackson of Fairburn, GA only needed to make the semifinals of the same bracket to make LM, and she did, so yay for her. Teammates were Peggy Jordan and Betty & Dennis Kowalzyk.

Thanks a million!

As always, there is an exhaustive list of people to thank in running any successful endeavor, and a bridge tournament is no exception. Many people have donated a large chunk of their time, sweat, and money to ensure that you have had the best time possible, and we hope we have met your expectations. If we have, please come back June 10-16 of 2013 and bring your friends with you—they'll have a great time too at the newly remodeled Hyatt. If we have not, please let us know and we will try and correct the problems if you give us another chance.

I would personally like to thank: Richard Brown for being my co-chair and the Information Guru. Barbara Somervil has run another excellent novice and I/N section. Howard Stein and the caddies made sure everything ran smoothly and did their usual excellent job. Reece and Gigi Blackwell helped find more alternative housing for people than ever before—a sign that we're growing. Richard Smith ran the prize room and hopefully didn't keep them all for himself. Mary Ellen Liptak was Obama's girlfriend and also ran the registration desk. Eldon and Susie Clayman put matchmakers to shame at the partnership desk and Nancy Griggs answered the bell in the mornings. Helen Greer and Evelyn Robinson went above and beyond the call of duty in maintaining the hospitality suite that so many people enjoyed, and Michael Jinks in particular was responsible for many of the culinary creations that you enjoyed (and yes ma'am, that is the best pound cake recipe ever.) Being a man of many talents, Michael also designed the Bulletin layout while Scott Stearns wrote the pretty words. Alice Ellenberg was responsible for the flowers. Other people who aided in some way include, but is not limited to, George Russell, Mike B, Bill Bowen, Phyllis Burdette, Shirley Brown and Sandy Blair. The directing staff led by Olin Hubert was awesome as always. But it is the players who make a tournament a success, and you did a smashing job as always. Have a safe trip home and see you in 2013!

Jim Villanueva, Tournament Chairman

Using Bidding Boxes

1,000 tables at a sectional?

Yes, it happens — at Atlanta. Be part of the June 29-June 3 Super Sectional, five days of bridge that looks and feels like a regional but with all silver points. Three sessions a day with a full intermediate/newcomer program directed by Priscilla Smith. Separate games for 299ers and 49ers. Prizes, gifts, a party, free lessons. Four bracketed KOs and three handicapped Compact KOs. New StrataFlighted Pairs so more 0-750, 0-1500, 0-2500 and even 0-5000 MP players have chances to win. The Atlanta Hilton Northeast (770) 447-4747, just a couple of hours down I-85 from Greenville, has lowered the bridge rate to $79. Pick up a flier at the information table or check www.mabcbridge.org.

The use of bid boxes at clubs and tournaments has become pretty standard, but if you're new to duplicate, bid boxes may also be new to you.

Here are some tips to make your first encounters pleasant:

Decide on your call before you touch a bid card. Don't think with your fingers—decide whether you're going to bid 2♠ or 3♠ before you reach for that bid card.

Look at the bid card before pulling it completely out of the box. You'd find it hard to convince a director that you inadvertently pulled the "pass" card when you meant to bid 6♠.

Display your bid cards neatly left to right in front of you. If all four players do this, a complete record of the auction is displayed.

Conclude the auction properly by placing your "pass" card on the table.

Even when the auction has concluded, don't rush to gather up your bid cards and place them back in the box. Many players find it helpful to let all bid cards remain on the table until North has recorded the final contract and the opening lead has been made.

Try to avoid inadvertent calls. What is normally a clear situation with spoken bidding becomes somewhat hazy when bid boxes are used.

The Laws read: Until his partner makes a call, a player may substitute his intended call for an inadvertent call but only if he does so, or attempts to do so, without pause for thought.

An inadvertent call is inadvertent if—and only if—it was a "slip of the fingers," the bid box equivalent of a "slip of the tongue." You reached for the 3♣ card but the 3♦ card accidentally came out.

In these situations, the correct call may be substituted without penalty. A player who calls attention to the inadvertent bid as soon as he notices what he actually pulled from the bid box has done so without pause for thought, even if some time has elapsed.

This is the "oops" rule: with spoken bidding, you would have said, "Three clubs—oops, I meant three diamonds." With bid boxes, you may say, "Oops" and substitute the 3♣ card for the 3♦ card.
