UNCROSS THOSE SIGNALS

The Mid-Atlantic Bridge Conference welcomes you to the Greenville Heritage Regional, which two years ago set an attendance record and established itself as one of the ACBL's top springtime events. Thanks to the hard work of co-chairs Jim Villanueva and Richard Brown, and all of their local volunteers, we expect that you'll enjoy a pleasant week of Southern hospitality. And spread the word that we'll return to a newly remodeled Hyatt in 2013 and nearly a half a billion dollars of improvements to downtown Greenville. Come see us grow every other year in the second or third week of June.

We hope you've made plans for these upcoming Mid-Atlantic Regionals, all featuring bracketed knockouts, Gold Rush pair games and hospitality to the max.

♦ Reston, VA – June 28-July 4, Hyatt Regency at Town Center (703) 709-1234. The Nation's Capital Regional is the ACBL's top choice over Independence Day. and you'll have your pick of daytime or the more routine day-and-night championship events. Chair: Margot Hennings (703) 560-0245, margot10bridge@cox.net.

♦ Hunt Valley, MD – Aug. 15-21, Baltimore Marriott Hunt Valley Inn (410) 785-7000. A much-improved schedule highlights this year's visit to the Maryland countryside. A final fling of summer for players up and down the Eastern Seaboard. Chair: Patricia Wilson (410) 825-7579, valleybridg@cs.com.

♦ Atlanta, GA – Aug. 30-Sept. 5, Crowne Plaza Ravinia (770) 395-7700. Venue sells out early, but there are plenty of options around Perimeter Mall. ♦ Charlotte, NC – Oct. 24-30, Hilton University Place (704) 547-7444. Wonderful property and setting in the shadows of a university, financial centers and a NASCAR landmark. 1,000 tables at a sectional?

Yes, it happens — at Atlanta. Be part of the June 29-June 3 Super Sectional, five days of bridge that looks and feels like a regional but with all silver points. Three sessions a day with a full intermediate/newcomer program directed by Priscilla Smith. Separate games for 299ers and 49ers. Prizes, gifts, a party, free lessons. Four bracketed KOs and three handicapped Compact KOs. New StrataFlighted Pairs so more 0-750, 0-1500, 0-2500 and even 0-5000 MP players have chances to win. The Atlanta Hilton Northeast (770) 447-4747, just a couple of hours down I-85 from Greenville, has lowered the bridge rate to $79. Pick up a flier at the information table or check www.mabcbridge.org.

Using Bidding Boxes

The use of bid boxes at clubs and tournaments has become pretty standard, but if you're new to duplicate, bid boxes may also be new to you.

Here are some tips to make your first encounters pleasant:

Decide on your call before you touch a bid card. Don't think with your fingers—decide whether you're going to bid 2♠ or 3♠ before you reach for that bid card.

Look at the bid card before pulling it completely out of the box. You'd find it hard to convince a director that you inadvertently pulled the "pass" card when you meant to bid 6♠.

Display your bid cards neatly left to right in front of you. If all four players do this, a complete record of the auction is displayed.

Conclude the auction properly by placing your "pass" card on the table.

Even when the auction has concluded, don't rush to gather up your bid cards and place them back in the box. Many players find it helpful to let all bid cards remain on the table until North has recorded the final contract and the opening lead has been made.

Try to avoid inadvertent calls. What is normally a clear situation with spoken bidding becomes somewhat hazy when bid boxes are used.

The Laws read: Until his partner makes a call, a player may substitute his intended call for an inadvertent call but only if he does so, or attempts to do so, without pause for thought.

An inadvertent call is inadvertent if—and only if—it was a "slip of the fingers," the bid box equivalent of a "slip of the tongue." You reached for the 3♣ card but the 3♦ card accidentally came out.

In these situations, the correct call may be substituted without penalty. A player who calls attention to the inadvertent bid as soon as he notices what he actually pulled from the bid box has done so without pause for thought, even if some time has elapsed.

This is the "oops" rule: with spoken bidding, you would have said, "Three clubs—oops, I meant three diamonds." With bid boxes, you may say, "Oops" and substitute the 3♣ card for the 3♦ card.

Huzzah and Kudos!

We at the Mid-Atlantic rightfully feel that we have the best directors in the nation, and it's no surprise to use that three of our directors recently got promoted from Associate to full Tournament Directors. Jenni Carmichael of Kennesaw, GA, Jay Bates of Chapel Hill, NC, and Chris Miller of Baltimore, MD all now get parking spaces reserved for them.

Please join me in remembering a great icon of the entertainment community. The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and trauma complications from being repeatedly poked in the belly. He was 71.

Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The grave site was piled high with flours.

Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded. Born and bread in Minnesota, Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he still was a crusty old man and was considered a positive roll model for millions.

Doughboy is survived by his wife Play Dough, three children: John Dough, Jane Dough and Dosey Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his elderly father, Pop Tart.

The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.
